No vote shall be accepted by proxy.

Resignations - Resignations of Federated Associations from membership is effective on filing with the President a notice of resignation not later than January 31 of any year. Resignations during the year shall be effective from date of resignation, but without entitling such resigning Federated Member to any abatement of dues for the current year.

Suspension and Revocation of Membership – The Board of Directors, by a two-thirds vote, may suspend or revoke the membership of any Federated Member for failure to act in accordance with or meet obligations to BOMA International and/or the Region as specified in their Federation Agreements. The Federated Member shall be given at least thirty (30) days written notice in advance of the meeting of the Board at which the vote is taken and shall be afforded to reinstate any membership suspended or revoked under this Article. Reinstatement is subject to such conditions as the Board may impose.

ARTICLE V
GOVERNANCE

The Officers of the Region shall consist of the following: President, Vice President, and Secretary/Treasurer.

The governance of the Region is vested in a Board of Directors consisting of the Officers and Directors. The chief elected officer of each Federated Member association becomes a Director concurrent with assuming their local position.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the following officers: President, Vice President, and Secretary/Treasurer. The Executive Committee shall perform such duties as are required under the bylaws or as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors. Officers elected for a term of one year shall hold office from the regular annual meeting of the Region at which they were elected, until the next regular annual meeting of the Region after their election or until their successors are elected and qualified. Any vacancy arising in any office of the Region or upon the Board of Directors or the Nominating Committee shall be filled by appointment by the President subject to confirmation at the next regional meeting by the Board of Directors.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Region and shall perform such duties as are required by the bylaws or which may be prescribed by the Board of Directors of the Region. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Region, shall appoint such committees as set out in the bylaws or which he/she shall deem advisable in conducting the work of the Region; to designate the duties of the affairs of the Region. It shall be the duty of the President to call a meeting of the Board of Directors at least one time each year or at each annual conference. It shall be the duty of the President to see that a complete record is made of all business meetings of the Region, Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee.

The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in his/her absence or inability to serve and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the bylaws or as may be prescribed by the Board of Director and assist the President in all activities of the Region and accept such assignments as may be directed by the President.

The Secretary/Treasurer shall maintain, or cause to be maintained all records of the Region in an orderly manner. He/she shall maintain a distribution list, which is always active and up to date, for the purpose of keeping the Federated Members informed on all matters.
He/she shall assist the President, and Vice President, the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors. He/she shall attend and make records of all meetings of the Region, and the Board of Directors may designate from time to time. He/she shall issue or cause to be issued all notices of meetings, and shall sign with the President any instrument of the Region upon approval of the Board of Directors.

The Secretary/Treasurer shall be the officer responsible for keeping the roll at all meetings and determination of existence of a quorum.

The Secretary/Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected and belonging to the Region. He/she shall receive all money on behalf of the Region, pay all bills from funds appropriated for the purpose, render such reports as the Region may require and at the annual meeting render a written report of all receipts and disbursements of his office for the preceding fiscal year. Disbursements shall be made by the Treasurer signing all checks with the President countersigning, except that the Board of Directors may authorize other signatures in the absence of either or both the President and Treasurer. He/she shall keep all money and other valuables belonging to the Region in a bank approved by the Executive Committee. He/she shall furnish Indemnity Bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the Executive Committee, the expense of said bond to be paid by the Region, or the Executive Committee may elect not to take out this insurance. In the event that the Secretary/Treasurer secures a paid individual to assume some or all of these duties, the Secretary/Treasurer maintains responsibility for record integrity.

The books of the Secretary/Treasurer shall be audited once each year within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting by a Finance Committee appointed by the President.

The Board of Directors has the power to incur expenses necessary for conducting the business of the BOMA Southwest Region as proscribed and dictated by the budget, which is adopted annually by the Board of Directors.

Indemnification. Each officer, director, Association Executive, and General Counsel of the Region shall be indemnified by the Region against all expenses and liabilities including counsel fees reasonably incurred or imposed upon them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be a party, or in which they may become involved by reason of being or having been in such position, or any settlement thereof whether the person is in such position at the time such expenses are incurred. Such indemnification shall apply except in such cases wherein the officer, director, Association Executive, or General Counsel commits a breach of duty or loyalty to the Region or its Federated Members; an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; a transaction from which is received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of their office or position; an act or omission for which liability is expressly provided for by statute; or an act related to an unlawful payment of monies or dividend; or is finally adjudged liable, by due legal process, of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of duties. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such position may be entitled. The Board shall annually review the need for Directors and Officers insurance covering the Board and Officers.
